corn top's ripe and the meadow's in the bloom While the birds make music all the merry, all happy and bright: By'n by Hard Times comes a knocking at the door, Then my old Kentucky Home, good night!

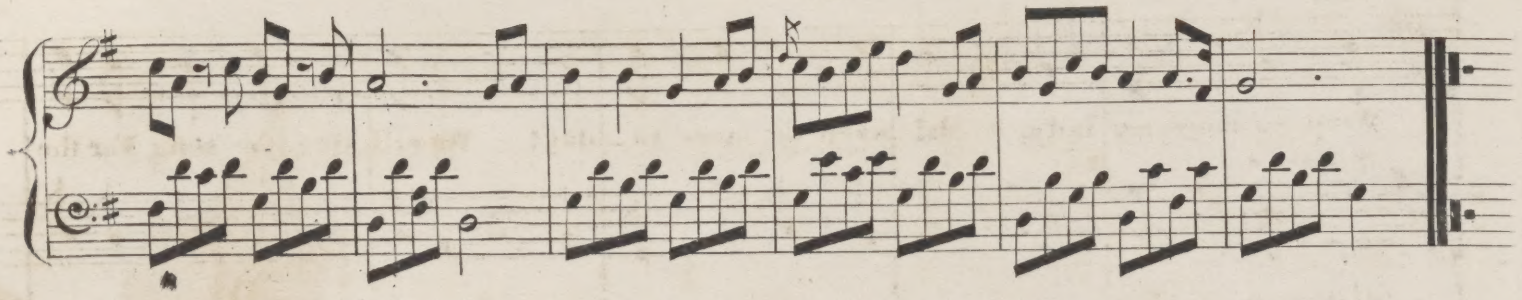
old Kentucky Home, For the old Kentucky Home, far a-way.

old Kentucky Home, For the old Kentucky Home, far a-way.



2d V. They hunt no more for the possum and the coon On the meadow, the hill and the shore, They sing no more by the glimmer of the moon, On the bench by the old cabin door. The day goes by like a shadow o'er the heart, With sorrow where all was de_light: The time has come when the darkies have to part, Then my old Kentucky Home, good-night! Chorus.

3d V. The head must bow and the back will have to bend, Wherever the darkey may go: A few more days, and the trouble all will end In the field where the sugar-canes grow. A few more days for to tote the weary load, No matter 'twill never be light, A few more days till we totter on the road, Then my old Kentucky Home, good-night! Chorus.
